Aloha and Welcome to the Vic-Maui International Yacht Race

Co-hosted by the Royal Vancouver Yacht Club and the Lahaina Yacht Club

The Vic-Maui International Yacht Race, the pinnacle of Pacific Northwest ocean racing, covers a distance on the rhumbline of 2,308 nautical miles. The Vic-Maui race was first contested in 1965 and has been sailed every two years since 1968.

The start venue is Victoria, BC, on Canada's West Coast, where pre-start preparations are completed in the picturesque Inner Harbour. The fleet starts just outside the harbour, sails out of the Strait of Juan de Fuca, leaves Cape Flattery on Washington's Olympic Peninsula to port, and heads across the Northeast Pacific Ocean.

Boats aim to sail around the North Pacific High and into the Trade Winds for the sub-tropical run to Hawaii. Days and nights at sea pass with sightings of whales, dolphins and albatross, under spectacular sunrises, sunsets, and brilliant starry nights.

The finish venue is Lahaina, Maui, the former royal capital of the Hawaiian Islands. As each boat crosses the finish line, the boat and crew are warmly welcomed in the Hawaiian tradition, after which the crew, family and friends enjoy a stay on Maui and attend a festive awards banquet.

Race after race participants report that Vic-Maui has been their most memorable sailing experience and the adventure of a lifetime. It is our sincere hope that you will be among those at the awards celebration in 2014 who share in the honor and satisfaction of competing in this world-class event.

We wish you fair winds and following seas.

MAHALO

A Message from the Lieutenant Governor

As Lieutenant Governor of British Columbia I am pleased to extend my best wishes to all participants of the 2014 Vic-Maui International Yacht Race.

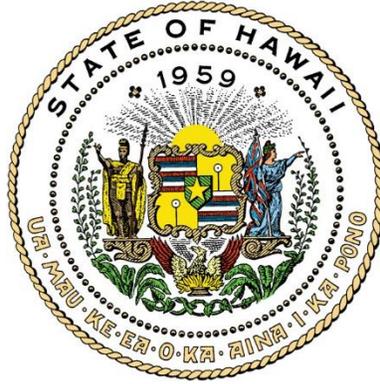

Since 1965, this race has challenged sailors as they voyaged across the Northwestern Pacific and into Lahaina Harbour. This 2308 nautical mile stretch is not for the faint of heart and requires skill, determination and preparedness. The rewards of this journey, including the breathtaking beauty of the Pacific and the sense of accomplishment at completion, cannot be underestimated.

As you set sail from Victoria, you embark on an exceptional adventure. On behalf of all British Columbians, I wish you a safe, enjoyable and memorable journey!

Sincerely,

The Honourable Judith Guichon, OBC
Lieutenant Governor of British Columbia

To the Skippers and Crews of the 2014 Victoria to Maui International Yacht Race

I, on behalf of the members of the Royal Vancouver Yacht Club and our friends of the Lahaina Yacht Club, would like to welcome you, the skippers, crews, friends and family to the 2014 Victoria to Maui International Yacht Race.

The journey you are undertaking will undoubtedly provide you with experiences, stories and memories that you will enjoy for a lifetime as evidenced by those who have completed the race before you. For some, this is the first time you will experience it first-hand. For others, perhaps you are returning for the love of the race, the adventure and to add to your experiences. Individual experiences and crew stories will vary but they will all be forged by the events of this one race.

Reflecting on the origins of the Race, it was started with an informal challenge of 4 boats in 1965 followed by the first official race in 1968 and has run biennially ever since. The planning and success of this race begins well in advance of the starting gun. No sooner was the last race finished than the dedicated volunteers from both Clubs started planning for this event. We will see competitors and boats from throughout the Pacific Northwest. It is with great thanks we acknowledge the volunteers, sponsors, organizations and competitors that have contributed to the event's longevity and popularity.

We wish you all a fast start as you depart from Victoria and sail past Race Rocks toward the open Pacific Ocean. We will monitor your progress toward Hawaii and look forward to greeting you in Lahaina upon your arrival.

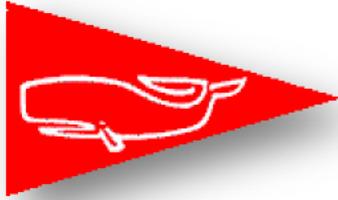

The months and years of planning and anticipation is about to be realized. I trust this year will provide you with adventure and challenges building camaraderie between crews and competitors.

We wish you a successful crossing and a fulfilling experience. Fair winds,

ROYAL VANCOUVER YACHT CLUB

“Alegria X” (Spanish for “Happiness”), was brought to Canada to introduce sailors to top level sailing courses on a modern platform. Owner Eberhard Heinzemann (also RVYC) and skipper Colin Jackson have collaborated on various boating & instructional projects over the years and sailing lessons aboard this boat have already seen trips in 2013 circumnavigating Vancouver Island and off to Barkley Sound and back. Colin & his wife Genny took Eberhard’s former boat on their honeymoon years ago.

Colin is returning to offshore racing after an 18 year break following three consecutive Vic-Maui races as crew, watch captain then navigator. Colin’s father Barrie Jackson, another passionate instructor, passed away suddenly shortly after the 1996 race and Colin then focused energy on the family business and growing a family ~ pushing back his desire to race back to Maui – until 2014! Because his father wanted to join Colin on the 4th sailing, something of Barrie’s will be carried aboard to the finish.

The entire crew is drawn from members of the Cooper Boating family of yacht owners, students and crew.

Doing the 2014 Vic-Maui is one of the key reasons for buying the boat and Anduril will sail with a crew of six. The experienced racing crew includes 2 Vic-Maui veterans and a solo non-stop circumnavigator. We're hoping to do as well as we can racing, but mostly we're looking to have some serious fun doing it. There are few better experiences than 10 days of downwind surfing to an awesome arrival party in Maui – may the 2014 trade winds blow joyously!

Bedlam II has raced in multiple local races under both her previous and current owners, including many Swiftsure and Southern Straights races. Bedlam II participated in the Vic-Maui 1980; over 30 years later this will be the boat's second Vic-Maui adventure.

This will be the first Vic-Maui experience for the crew members of Bedlam II. The crew is looking to involve the wider community in the adventure of sailing. They are using social media in the lead-up (boat website, blog, Twitter @svBedlam2) and will continue updating their followers through inReach and Twitter while on the way to Hawaii. "We want as many people as possible to join us as virtual crew on this trip," states crew member John Johnstone.

Preparing for the 2014 Vic-Maui, Bedlam II has been racing in the VRC Polar Bear series and will sail in the Southern Straights and Swiftsure races. She was named the VRC Boat of the Year in 2012.

The crew is excited about this opportunity to bring Bedlam II back to Northwest Pacific offshore racing. Everyone agrees that they will be closer friends when they arrive in Maui than they were when they set sail. Sailing, planning, and learning together, mixed with midway events, inter-crew competition, and events in Victoria & Maui will help to solidify an adventure that will not be forgotten.
